

SYMPATHISER MEMBERS GUIDELINES

1. Companies considered as a supplier to the corrugated industry in Europe may attain the status of sympathising member of FEFCO.
2. The services of FEFCO to sympathising members include the right to receive:
  - Statistics on the European Corrugated Industry;
  - Publications such as brochures, Press information, business cycle reports and other publications of FEFCO;
  - Selected information on technical issues;
  - Access to special events reserved for members only, such as the Technical Seminar or the Marketing Congress.
3. The status of sympathising member does not give voting rights nor the right to attend the General Assembly of the Federation.
4. The company wishing to join FEFCO should apply with a written statement.
5. The fee for a sympathizing member is, at present, €2.600 net per year. It will be invoiced and is due in the first quarter of the year.
6. Members may resign by giving at least 6 months notice to the association, their contribution for the current year and previous years remaining due whatever the date on which such notice is issued.
