

FEFCO Corresponding Member - Excerpts from the Statutes

- The corresponding members are natural persons, companies or legal persons in the corrugated board industry performing their activities in Europe. There are two categories of Corresponding members:
 - Category “A”: belong to a country which does not have a professional association or other recognised association
 - Category “B”: belong to a country whose professional association is not an active member of the association
- The company wishing to join FEFCO should submit a written application form to FEFCO Secretariat
- The application must contain evidence that the applicant is eligible for FEFCO membership
- The status of Corresponding members give them full voting right as well as the right to attend the General Assembly of the federation
- Members may resign by giving at least a 6 months’ written notice to the association. Their contributions covering the current and previous years remain due to the federation, disregard the resignation time.
- Members who fail to meet their obligations vis-à-vis the Federation may be excluded from FEFCO. Their contributions covering the current and previous years remain due.
- The annual fee for a Corresponding member is, at present, € 1.500,00 net. It will be invoiced and is due in the first quarter of each affiliation year.
